1. A Qualified SOS Malaysian Member is entitled to nominate one dependent to receive one free basic health screening package.
2. Only the nominated dependent whose name appears on the Notification Letter is entitled to the one free basic health screening package.
3. The original Notification Letter and Guarantee Letter are to be produced at and accepted by the participating hospitals. Photocopies of letters will not be accepted.
4. No extension of the free health screening package beyond the stipulated validity date will be permitted.
5. The free health screening package is non-exchangeable for cash.
6. The free health screening package is not transferable to other dependents who are not nominated by the member.
7. Any unconsumed benefits are not allowed to be carried forward.

iii. Procedures

1. A Qualified SOS Malaysian Member is required to complete a Nomination Form which is obtainable from the Crewing Agent or Employer, within one month of his sign-on date. The completed Nomination Form must be submitted to SMS Liaison Officer through the Crewing Agent or Employer.
2. Once the nomination is approved, the Qualified SOS Malaysian Member's nominated dependent will be notified by post via his family registered address as declared on the Nomination Form. The nominated dependent will receive a Notification Letter to utilize the free basic health screening package.
3. The nominated dependent will call the appointed hospitals directly to book an appointment for the free basic health screening.
4. The nominated dependent, whose name appears on the notification letter must produce the original Notification Letter and Photo Identification Card (MyKad) at the participating hospitals for verification and utilization of the free basic health screening package.
5. The Qualified SOS Malaysian Member and his nominated dependent are to abide by the terms and conditions of the appointed hospitals.

iv. Exclusion

If the health screening benefit indicates a need for follow-up treatment and/or medication, such treatment and/or medication shall be absolutely and entirely at the nominated member's dependent discretion and own expenses.

v. Amendment

The Singapore Organisation of Seamen reserves the right to repeal or amend in any way from time to time any or all of the medical benefits, criteria, conditions, procedures and participating medical providers relating to the SMS for SOS Malaysian Members at its absolute discretion. The Qualified SOS Malaysian Member and his dependents shall be jointly or severally bound by any variation or amendment or addition to or subtraction from the said SMS.

vi. Interpretation

If a query or dispute arises over the construction or interpretation of any provision in the SMS, the decision of the Executive Committee of SOS shall be final and binding on all Qualified Malaysian Members and their dependents.

vii. Disclaimer Clause

While every reasonable effort is made by the SOS to ensure that all information presented in all publications pertaining to this scheme is accurate, the SOS disclaims any liability for any injury, loss or damage whatsoever that may have arisen whether directly or indirectly as a result of any inaccuracy, error or omission.
